

IRM Management Network GmbH was founded in 2002 in Berlin. Since then, we became one of the leading providers of specialised software solutions for the simulation and controlling of asset structures. The Real Estate-Value Creator (RE-VC)[®] which was developed by us supports our clients in all issues of asset, portfolio, risk and financial management. The users are large investment houses of national and international importance, public limited companies as well as portfolio holders in the real estate industry. Success is an incentive for us to improve, and so we are constantly defining new goals that we would like to achieve with you. Contribute your strengths to our committed and cooperative team as a

Software developer Microsoft Apps (a)

What is this job about?

- Conception and development of cloud applications and architectures for the extension of our Windows and SQL server-based systems. The goal is the creation of an app family.
- You are significantly involved in the development process from conception to rollout and shape it with your ideas.

Your profile

You should already have basic experience in the following disciplines. Any lacking knowledge can be acquired during the project. We are happy to support and to encourage you!

- You bring along technological, organisational and process knowledge based on the Microsoft 365 environment.
- You are experienced in programming web applications, especially with JavaScript / TypeScript, HTML and CSS and Teams API.
- You use current technologies from the Microsoft stack such as Azure SDK, Git, PowerShell and the Teams Toolkit for Visual Studio.
- You already have knowledge of Clean Code Development and eventually Test Driven Development.
- Experience in the conception (solution design), development and integration of team solutions, web applications, as well as their operation (Azure DevOps) is a plus.
- What matters to us first and foremost is your passion for codes! Not only developers with university degrees are in demand, but also career changers. We will give you the chance to qualify professionally and to develop your skills.
- You speak German fluently.

Our Offer

- A permanent position and attractive payment depending on skills and level of knowledge from 45.000 – 75.000 Euros p.a. plus variable revenue share.
- Many of our employees are with us since the very beginning. You will find a collegial and appreciative working atmosphere at IRM, where it is fun to get involved.
- We value the skills of our employees and leave plenty of room for creativity in the implementation and design of the projects.
- We are flexible when it comes to work-life balance: full or part-time, flexitime or mobile working: A lot is possible!
- In addition, you have the option of using a generously subsidised BVG company ticket for all your ways within Berlin.
- Our modern office in Berlin Prenzlauer Berg is well connected to the public transport system. You will find a lot of parking spaces nearby alternatively.
- We work together and celebrate together: You will find regular team events on our agenda.
- We offer free warm drinks and water as well as fruit and gummy bears all day.
